

Welcome to the Show Up For Love and Stand Up Against Hate Rally!

Thank you for coming! We are grateful for your presence today. We want to make sure that you know about several local groups in the Merrimack Valley. As you know, standing against racism and white supremacy is a process – and we are looking to create community together. If you are new to your understanding of racism and white privilege, welcome! If you have been thinking through these ideas for a long time, we would be delighted to join together with you in creating a more just and welcoming community. Here is a list of some of the active groups in the Merrimack Valley – visit their websites or Facebook pages for more information.
